THE DEFENSE.

Mitchell's strikers at Salem have become n of affairs as B. B. Tuttle, Raiph Demeut. ers affairs of the state is beauti'ul ng. These and their fellows are shocked that north should "stop the wheels of legisla by standing out against the 'exprewill of the majority. They see in the atti-tode of the solid dighteen a menage to great in-terests which are perhaps more dear than mar o thous; stid moved by the impulses of letty atriotism and noble manhood are protesting against it. Not only are the people's interests suffering, say these men, but great principles of political government are being outraged. A rity is "dictating" to the majority, and if their efforts should win, a long train of party sed on a violated discipling, are set forth as natural and fatal consequ
